SUNDAY JULY 12 1868.

TEA-TABLE TALK.

Last week our fair readers were defrauded of their chapter by the premature sailing of the Bremen steamer.

Since then the chief food for "conversazione" has been the Cricutal romance in which Miss Freyre played the heroine. The facts are already known to the public: Lozano seems to have formed a desperate passion for her which was firmly opposed, by her parents He was a young man of irregular life and undefined prospects: and so far from any exercise of parental tyranny, the case evinced a wise precaution, to which the fastidious maiden readily assented. She is, we learn, handsome, accomplished, and about 23 years of age, her family being well connected in Montevideo. With a dangerous generosity, the Freyre family allowed him to visit the house, and when rejected by the object of his terrible affections, it would seem he hinted some dark revenge. On the feast of the Holy Apostles (29th ult) he called forth to worship the people, to pray, for the Evil Spirit was in his soul, but to do murder. Instead of mixed or corrupted wine, he carried a pistol and a dagger, and with these hellish implements dared to follow his victim into the House of God. No impulse of grace or compunction fell upon the ruffian, who waited the conclusion of the service, which he decreed should be the last for her who knelt, in suppliant piety, before the altar. Miss Freyre saw him dog her steps, and instinctively hastened towards her uncle's house (Oscardi), when she just entered and was running across the court-yard when he fired. Luckily she stumbled, and so evaded the deadly bullet, but before she had time to rise he buried the dagger in her side. When seized we understand that he expressed regret, not that he had failed in his diabolical purpose. In England he would be hanged, but here it is likely he will only suffer some few years imprisonment in the common gaol. Miss Freyre is still living and apt to recover. She deserves congratulations for her desperate escape, though being allied to such a scoundrel, and from being cut off by lead or steel.

Considerable vexation is caused by the fact that Captain Bowers carries his privateering into the realms of the Cyprian goddess, destroying even those tender emblems of youthful or conjugal affection, which are found in the midshops. The queen of the sea will probably take revenge, by ordering Eolus to blow the Alabama on some rocky coast, or else, arming Cupid with one of Colt's revolvers to shoot the transgressor through the head—heart he has none.

Mrs. Chicho scandalizes our city-talk by accompanying her husband, the Colonel-General, in his campaign. She must be a regular Amazon, to keep up with him on horseback, for he rides, often, seventy leagues a day. Yet we may rather admire her fidelity, for she can expect little clemency if taken by Sandoz or Sarmiento. The heroism of Florence Nightingale and Sisters of Charity rides before such example, only equalled by the Queen of Spain. We hope the old lady and her husband may safely cross the Cordilleras, and quietly end their days in Chile.

During the July festivals of Independence there was a notable lack of pretty girls, and, as may be imagined, the whole passed off indifferently. We have not yet learnt the cause of such absence, for it is difficult to suppose Anglo-torieism so anti-republican as to neglect their national celebration from unseemly over patriotism in their ideas, although it is true many of them prefer any other kind of declaration to that of independence.

"Sentinel Jones" is an ugly phrase on board ship, but in matrimonial parlance a man is not supposed to be utterly useless if he has nevertheless it frequently turns his head for a season. Well, in the last few days two or three of our friends, after smoking about on the ocean of celibacy, have taken love for a pilot, and consequently steered into the port of Hymen. They are at present under quarantine.

A correspondent says as follows:—"The 9th of July Ball at the Prosperous Club took place on Wednesday evening, the 8th. Not very crowded, at least one of the most animated reunions it has ever been our good fortune to attend at this most aristocratic of clubs. The dresses of the ladies seemed to our bachelor eyes more expensive and voluminous than ever. One disquisition on "sweet peach" seemed to us as having 400 yards of flouncing (what mysterious thing may that be?) on the skirt of her dress! In the first place we must congratulated ourselves on never having paid a milliner's bill, and made certain vows as regarded the future. The supper was perfection and the supper one of Lucciani's best."

The Government at Rio has granted to Pastadaria a subvention, we have been informed on account. After the winter months he will bring his troupe to Colon. Of the merits of the Prima Donna we have heard the most contradictory reports: nothing heard like her since the days when La Grua delighted our ears. In attendant, we are well satisfied with the sweet tenor and insufficient ceiling of Mdme. Mollo, who is becoming better acquainted with her public, sings with more confidence, and consequently more power. This was eminently visible in her third performance of "Traviata," which left nothing to be desired.

Some interesting varieties we read of a young lady attempting to commit suicide, because another (less handsome) had run away with her lover. Happily the pistol did not go off, and the disappointed deceiver was not worth the sacrifice, and she should remember "there's no fool like an old fool" as never was more true. We do not know the name of this Argentine Saffo, but wish her better luck next time.

We understand a phrenological friend of ours is about to publish a treatise, or give a lecture "On the superiority of female intellect, over that of males in the Spanish race" with a little leaf to the development of bumps, but the above thesis finds thousands of supporters among our fellow residents, and none stronger than ourself.

We have picked up a Fashion's report which we will give to-morrow.

THE LOST MAIZE.

It is a sad lamentable fact, that not more than a few leagues from Buenos Ayres there are at this moment thousands of fanegas of the very best Indian corn rotting in the chacras for the want of a proper cheap mode of conveyance to market.

The maize this year has been singularly abundant, and yielded to the farmer one hundred fold; but it were better for the chacrero if it had been destroyed by blight than he should have suffered the expense of gathering in what he has not now the remotest chance of realizing. If we inquire into the cause of this great agricultural calamity, we will discover that the seas, or epidemic, this year is but a miserable subterfuge resorted to by those whose duty it was to foresee such a fortuitous circumstance, and to take measures accordingly.

Fortunate, then talking of the prosperity of the interior provinces and the possibilities of growing staple articles for consumption, invariably dwells the idea, owing to the miserable transit accommodation. We all know that San Luis and Mendoza produce fine quantities of the produce of wine and the best sugars, and that the freights to Rosario are at present so heavy that these provinces are shut out from the market. A few of us are prepared to learn that in the chacras of Chivilcoy thousands of fanegas of maize are lost for the selling price.

We confess that in calling public attention to this disgraceful state of affairs on the part of the rulers of the province, we feel that we shall but increase the hostility which these ready-cut-and-dry dignitaries at present so-plentifully manifest for us, and of which gross negligence as one of the greatest faults a minister could commit, and as calculated to do the agricultural interests of the province the very highest injury, we cannot, like our colleagues, remain silent. It owing to the heavy salve ways of Divine Providence, a part of this province is afflicted with a drought, and the corn necessarily become no poor that bullock-cart tariffs is almost extinct, is that, may we ask, any reason why the riches of the country are to be left to perish? Afflicted by the unfortunate, half-ruined chacreros at front 1s. 6d. to 2s. per fanega, and even at that price no buyer can be found, owing to the enormous freights charged to Buenos Ayres. Without wishing to be personal, may we be permitted to ask—In Heaven's name, what are the Ministers Acosta and Dominguez good for if they calmly witness such distressing circumstances as we upon the bone and sinew of the country?

Thousands of fat horses the Government are at present maintaining, but the public have no right, we believe, to ask but they be employed in carting in into our market square this valuable staple

Gracious Heavens, a staple which in affords maintenance to millions, and is one of the greatest exports from whence of the Western States in North America, is suffered to rot and moulder in Buenos Ayres, whilst if the honest truths be told, there is scarcely produce enough in the country this moment to load a little barque of 300 tons

A meeting was called the other day to support the project in the first place of the public peace, a revolutionist. May we ask why is there not one held now in the Plaza Victoria to demand Government to take steps for getting the maize from Chivilcoy, and thus save the farmers from ruin and the country from a loss

We are informed that neither President Mitre nor Ministe Rawson will prohibit the attendance of the Governor of Buenos Ayres. Here is the patriotic editor of the 'National' personages and flings, as well as a number of the son of one of our ex-Governors? or any of the other gentlemen who live by the sweat of the brow of others, but do they not get up a subscription and convene a meeting, to save the expiring and exhausted agricultural interests of the country. We have been told that bellow, shallow set of men, who would fain persuade us all that they, and they alone, are the saviours of the country? Where, we ask you this Governor, Fores, nor Bermo, nor Lucas Mo ono, nor Medina, are the fit subjects of either public attention or individual charity, but the many chacreros of Chivilcoy, who, in the midst of plenty, are owing to the most scandalous mismanagement of the land in the state of extreme poverty, and forced to behold the product of their hard labour rot, simply because there is no means of conveyance, are the proper subject meriting to look after their interests

EDITORS' TABLE.

The Montevideo papers are all delighted at our second letter on the meeting, and have translated and published the 'Standard' version in full.

The murderer of po r Farrell in the Florida Street has been packed off to San Nicolas, where it is said he is to be treated as a native criminal. In his way out, he called at an Irishman's house (Mr. Murphy, Salto), and actually passed the night there. In the North there is a growing belief that the civilization must be caught and inoculated.

We are happyto say that the longpending lawsuit respecting certain camps in the Carmen de Areco has at last been settled, and the surveyors and surveyors left yesterday morning for the purpose of measuring the land in question.

The complaint, by two Englishmen against the British Hospital, was once ruling to the explanation given by the Secretary to have been exaggerated, and the admission was offered to the applicant, if he would go to the pauper ward. It seems, however, rather questionable the propriety of the Hospital receiving such patients, paying $30 per day, are obliged to enter the pauper's ward.

Our readers will be glad to hear that many of the foreign estancieros are turning their attention to growing crops, in conjunction with sheep-farming. On one estancia in the Northern boundary of Buenos Ayres, the crop of maize this year was 15,000 short of 1000 fanegas, besides nearly went to labourers by s owing carcels. We know that, owing to the total scarcity of dry goods, there will be a good judge amongst foreigners engaged in the sheep business to this class of industry. But as there is every prospect that labour will be much cheaper, and, as a rule, however bad the year may be, the crop generally covers the expenses, and as there is nothing more useful to a country than to have his own wheat, maize and alfalfa, we hope to see the custom more general throughout the country.

General Mitre, we are glad to see is back to his old quarters in Rosario again. His presence in that locality is much needed, as the estancieros have confined seriously from the invasion of the Indians; and since January last the number of cattle thrown on the market from their stocks is truly incredible.

The Paladin, it is said, is still kept as a prize at Martin Garcia. Some of his officers on board of our fleet somewhat greedily that within a strong show of land they are obliged to live in salt beef. The Montevideo papers say that some French men-of-war are going up to Asuncion themselves to Admiral Murnture and cut out the Paladin. It is to be regretted that this necessary step was not taken by Government and the Oriental should be so long without any definite arrangement. A meeting in favour of the Paraguay talked of in Montevideo, but we trust that it was only a scandalous affair.

We call the attention of our readers to the rather prosperous condition of the British Clerks' Saving Society of Montevideo. We think our friends here would do well to take a leaf out of our Oriental friends book.

The remarkably free Buenos Ayres Echo, which for some years has been in the possession of Mr. Latham, died about a week ago, after a long and painful illness. He was got by the famous Darkaway, and came, in the direct male line through Waxey from Eclipse, and was therefore thirty years old. He has left to represent and perpetuate the blood in this country a fine lot of colts and three-quarter-bred fillies, as well as a number of colts. Mr. L., we understand, has supplied the place of Elpho with another horse of equally pure blood, and a cousin of Marsyard, the winner of the Derby run for on the 20th of May last.

CAMP MURDERS.

Villa de Lujan, July 7th 1868.

To the Editor.—Sir.—The recent assassinations of our countrymen in Morales, has created no small amount of sensation throughout this and the adjoining parties, but unfortunately speaking, is connived at by our camp authorities.

The roving gauchi knows full well he can commit the most diabolical crimes with impunity, being fully conscious of the indolence and carelessness displayed by our worthy limbs of the law in the apprehension of murderers.

It may be said similar crimes are committed in Buenos Ayres, but the assassin often escapes being brought to justice. But is it, may I ask, owing to the lack of energy or vigilance on the part of the authorities that the delinquent escapes.

Our camp justices say—and with good reason—our gauchos are passionately fond of their cattle, consequently we cannot prevent them. Alas! what a boon of consolation to the broken-hearted widow, who, but a few days since, surrounded by her children was enjoying all the happiness of connubial bliss, but who now is little less than a raving maniac. The husband whom she so fondly loved and cherished, that father who happily smiled on his beloved children, which numerous delights he was murdered in the presence of his family, is really heartrending.

It is monstrous to imagine the abusive light in which the law is handled by our camp magistrates. They take little or no interest in the apprehension of crime, and seem to consider murder as a trifling matter. How many Irishmen have lost their lives by the hand of the assassin and no punishment? How many of those scoundrels have been punished? Not one, and the reason is obvious.

So long as we are left with such a conglomeration of justices of the peace, so long will we constantly hear of murders; each day will bring us tidings of the murder of some dear friend or relative.

ANTON.

THE FLORES' CAMPAIGN

The Siglo' gives dates from 'Paysandu up to July 1st. Great inconvenience is felt in the transmission of mails and despatches; it is reported beyond them overland from Mercedes to the capital. Phillis, Chief of Police, informs the Government that the Commissaries of the 2nd, 4th, 5th and 6th sections, report everything quiet, there being only a band of some 20 runaways hiding about the Rio Negro. No later news of Lamas or the rebel.

A despatch from Mercedes, of the 1st inst. states that the band of 30 Filibusters from Buenos Ayres, who had fled at Blanca Barrios, and respected Major Carrazco, by plunging into a marsh, continued their course by the Las Conas and Gallinas. They were well armed with guns, rifles and swords, as appears from the statement of a neighbour of Soriano, whom they met and who attended liberally. Pedragosa sent a courier to inform Phillis that he might give them chase, as they travel only by night, and under cover of the woods

ROSARIO.

The unpopularity of Governor Posse has been reat-red to power in Cordoba. Colonel Prudo writes from Guardia Esquina, 6th inst. that he has gone out with a large force to repel the Indian invasion The savages were 240 in number, disposed in a half-moon, and as soon as our troops saw them, all the National Guards turned round and fled without firing a shot, leaving their commander with 12 soldiers, who, however, succeeded in capturing 600 head of stolen cattle. There was 1 Indian killed, and 3 or 4 of our men.

There was a Te Deum on the 9th at Rosario, also a review of the 2nd batt., and fireworks. The Ferro carril has a very laudatory article on Dr Zovita's administration of the Provincial Government. Colonel Charlone, of the Italian Legion, has received a fine sword from the citizens of Sta Fe. There are awful complaints of the slaughter of Las Playas, which we dare not publish for fear of the Fiscal. Yet Chavero is to be hanged for Pozitos!

MONTEVIDEO.

Desertion is the order of the day. Medina loses men every day, so does Flores. The latter was sent to Perera (rio Negro) on the 1st inst. with 2,000 horses and a few men. A force of twenty rebels was dispersed at Minas of Corrales near Durazno. The King of Portugal has dictated measures in favour of Uruguay beef. A clerk of Messrs. Proudfoot Hughes was arrested for the charge of stealing 200 old cubloons. A $ award was fixed $25 dollars for conceiling a National Guard deserter.

A great fire broke out on the 9th inst. at Snr. Arzaguny's soap factory in the Plaza Cagancha. The Custom House and Salto fire engines arrived promptly on the spot, and the police laboured energetically, but nothing could overcome the flames, which destroyed all the premises, with 2,500 arrobas of grease, &c. Mr. Loedel, professor of languages, an English subject, was arrested on the same day for 1868. There is a first-batch in the confession that the senators of Tacuarembo have been fooled by their deceased colleague D. Gervasio Aguado, the land genus, has dedicated a sonnet to Elvira Freyre, which is conceived in bad taste and is a lamentable attempt, very imperfectly executed.

A NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR BONE ASH.

By the Scout advices from Lan ton, by the French mail of 24th ult., we learn that Dr. Sheridan Muspratt, Principal of the Liverpool College of Chemistry, and the following pupils having subjected to a very careful analysis a sample of Estes' medium phosphate, the extensive deposits of which within the Province conferred by the Spanish Government 10 Mr. F. K. Dainas, of the firm of Dumas, Bonfils & Co., London, confirmed the report that it contains 93 per cent. of the phosphate of lime. The percentage of phosphoric acid contained in the phosphate for the production of duct known amounting to 41·136 per cent. The mineral is, on this account, valuable for the preparation of the various phosphate manures now so extensively manufactured. It is, besides, readily attacked by the acids employed, in order to obtain a solution thus it offers considerable advantages over other phosphatic compounds, which, from their insolubility in acetic have long been practically recognized in the use of the precisely analogous phosphate from the island of Sombrero, and which also fully answers the consignee, and which has, to so great an extent, taken the place of South American guano on the east coast of the United States, and is rapidly displacing it from the European market.

"A company is being formed in Paris for the manufacture of an artificial manure, of which the Estremadura phosphate will form a chief element, a contract for its supply having been made with the owner of the quarries. This substance is represented as of extraordinary richness containing not less than 95 per cent of arbiasic phosphate of lime, without the drawback of a proportion of carbonate of lime, the existence of which is said to restrict the use of the superlites found in the neighbourhood of Strasburg. Analysis of minerals which the Estremadura phosphite will probably supersede, owing not only to its superior richness, but from the proximity of the deposits to this country, is done sub, now imported chiefly from the Brazils and the River Plate"

THE TURF.

The racing at the Capilla del Señor is a feather in the cap of our sporting countryman, who had the forecast to possess himself of the best-bred colt, grandson of the grand Herkwood, known as the Irish Eclipse, and son of Elcho. This is extraordinary and always farmers or others who wish to form a mesalt of mestizos, or to indulge in the national sport of racing with any degree of ease, should have no thing in possessing themselves of half or three-quarters-bred colts. We are informed that Mr. Lutin has at his chacra some remarkably fine colts of one and a half and two and a half years old, in first rate condition and corn-fed. He has also a number of foals six and nine months old, of rare beauty and points, a y and all of which will do credit to their sire and grandsire, the Irish Eclipse.

We call attention to the recently published programme of the Argentine Racing Society, announcing a prize to be contended for by mestizos of various Weight for age.

NEW CUSTOM HOUSE LAW.

This scandalous law, we regret to be obliged to publish in our columns. However, as it is necessary that people should know it, we give the law in full for it.

CHAPTER I.
MARITIME IMPORTS

Art. 1. Gold and silver in coin and unwrought, plants of every nature, living and dried, printed books, manuscripts and printed papers, shall be admitted free of duty.

Art. 2. The Executive power is authorized to admit the free of duty duties of seeds destined for agriculture, and also of those articl s which in its judgment may be considered objects pertaining to religion, and which are need for by the curates of churches or superiors of confraternities as property of said institutions, and also of those articles of science, machines requisite to new fabrics or in lustry; emigrants' furniture or tools, and things destined exclusively for their or establishment.

Art. 3. Unset precious stones, gold and silver, wrought or manufactured, but not coined, precious stones every instru ment or utensil with which for adornment of the same metal, when these augment a fixed part of its value, and the law or breeding, shall pay 8 per cent of its value.

Art. 4. All articles of importation not excepted in the preceding articles, shall pay 25 per cent.

Art. 5. The impost of wharfage of articles for direct despatch shall be five per centum for each 3 ar. of weight, or equivalent to measurement, according to the classification of the bulk, which shall be made by the exa tive.

Art. 6. Leakage of wines, spirits, liquors, beer in barrels, and vinegar, will be calculate d according to the part from whence the vessel shall have loaded, to the per cent. being calculated, for the ports situated to the north of the line, six leas than the ports on this side of the line, seven per cent. being allowed, the above in bottles, five per cent. without admitting refilling, or any other description of leakage, &c.

LOCAL EVENTS.

L'ASTREE.—Th splendid French frigate is said to be the finest man-of-war ever seen in the River Plate. She will remain in Montevideo, where the Minister of War paid her a visit of inspection.

THE CAPILLA.—We read in the Oriental papers of the 9th inst. a forbidden report that the Capilla del Señor, the continuance of the Sisa works, unless the neutrality of the Red can be guaranteed: this is at the instigat on of Brigadier A. Argerich. Brigadier Argerich is about to run a railway across the Maylayan peninsula, which will shorten the voyage to Onina by fifteen days.

1000 YEARS.—The oldest newspaper in the world is published at Pekin, on silk. It has celebrated its 1000th anniversary, and sent out circulars on Friday is a Sardinian steamer.

FULMINANTE.—We have in the Plate two war-vessels of this name, unless the Frenchman be gone home. The latter has been visited our harbours on Friday is a Sardinian steamer.

LIFE OF GEN. CARRERA.—We have received this historical essay by General Trivino, touching the great feat of Carrera in Chile. The author seems to charge our countryman with bad play, in getting rid of Carrera. The volume is interesting to Americans, and we gladly welcome such publications of indigenous literature which Sr. Satolini labours to suppress.

Montevideo Parish Clerks' Association.—The second half years general meeting of this association was held on the 8th instant, Mr Edward Cooper in the chair, when the report of the committee was presented for the consideration of the members, and showed a highly satisfactory result. The amount of deposits has increased since the last meeting in January, by about 80 ounces, the total funds now at the credit of the society being nearly 260 ounces. The dividend declared was at the rate of 20 per cent per annum, on all amounts lodged. The bye laws were revised and ordered to be printed: a new rule carried, giving members the privilege of lodging sums of 20 dollars and upwards, at a fixed rate of interest, 9% a glass of wine. remark that several new names were added to the list of members. Altogether the Association seems to be in a prosperous condition. The meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman

THE VERY LATEST.

The Libertad could not leave yesterday evening on account of the river being so low. She leaves this evening.

The races in Belgrano take place today. The Palmar has been ordered to be relieved to day.

The opera of Norma to-night in Colon. The "Flor del Plata" is in with a tremendous cargo.

The river is so low, that the Editor of the Tribuna purposes taking a walk out to the outer roads this morning, to try and see Pierce.

On 'Change.

July 11th.

Ounces opened at 468 3/4 and kept very steady during the day: they went up towards one o'clock a fw, and closed firm at 469. The cash transactions were rather heavy, 6732. The majority, however, of these sales were for the purpose of closing transactions made between the brokers.

The sales on time were as follows:—

For Wednesday, 100 at 469
do	400	468 1/2
Friday	100	468
Saturday	1100	468 1/2
July 31st	800	467 1/2

FREIGHTS

The British brig Juliana to load, here bones and bone ash for the Clyde at 25s.

Owing to the very heavy wind there was nothing done in the Plaza, the sales of produce which we give below having been effected yesterday, with the exception of 500 tons of bone ash sold to-day on the Rahon at 13 pats.

The Singers which is ready to put to sea, was detained this evening by the heavy wind; and several vessels expected from Montevideo have been delayed from the same cause.

IMPORTS.

The cargo of salt, ex Johanna from Cadiz at 9 rls on board.

160 tercios of yerba Paraguay, 60 dollars deep.

250 bultos yerba Paraguay, reserve-price.

The cargo of yerba, ex 2nd of December, at reserved price

281 boxes loaves sugar, at 14, 13 and 11 rls on deposit.

On 'Change to day there was very little doing, beyond the arrangement of some contracts by the brokers. We are happy to say that, by the one mer from Montevideo this morning we learn that the story current yesterday, respecting the Alabama vessel her captures is incorrect. Ounces held very firm during the day, and showed rather an upward tendency than anything else. The news by the English packet is anxiously looked for and expected on Monday or Tuesday. We are glad to hear gold is expected in her, but we believe it to be an ounce rumour. It is thought by most people that as exchange will go up towards the end of the year, ounces must and will come down by that time: also that, as in a few months more, large quantities of paper money will be required for country purposes, specie must fall. Nevertheless we perceive a willingness on the part of many to buy at present prices for the end of the year.

The increased currency of foreign coin is the subject of remark. Nearly every one takes many pieces in pay, and even the greatest opposers to the measure now make their pay months in sovereigns

The sales of Barnacs produce could hardly be more limited than at present, owing to the absolute and positive scarcity of both hides and wool. Some Barnacs are of opinion that one good sized Steamer can take out every article of produce at present on hand, and that now little or nothing can be expected from the coast. Owing to the proximity to our coast of the Alabama, the American vessels can get no freight of any description and Dutch vessels are now loading for the Rhine.

From Montevideo we learn, per Mercury, that things are very quiet there, business being very stagnant. We notice the following—

70 pipes of wine, ex Francisco pal's, at 63 dols per pipe, all American, which show 1 del less than former sales

650 demijohns of gin, ex Cosmos, have been sold at 1 del 0.5, and 80 barrel of rice at 1 del 0 0

400 do of gin, ex Salmon, at 1 del 0.5 in deposit; 280 do of 1 gallon, at 48 cents: 400 bottles Criollo del Rosario, at 52 cents per do, at 1 del 35, and 400 of the same at 1 del 40

876 bags of farina, ex Dos de Enero, at 62 cents per bag deposited

60 rolls of Brazilian tobacco, ex Imp roviso, at 4 del per aroba, in deposite

7 bags of coffee, at 16 dols per quintal, in deposit, and 65 flitches of bacon, at 4 dols per aroba despatched to Paysandu

12 lots of English fancy biscuits of 144 tins despatched; 25 boxes of English pickles, at 2 dols in deposit, 1 bag of pepper, and black pepper, at 9 del 0 3 in deposite

Freights effected in Montevideo.

The British brig Scratch, to load in port, for Cadiz, with 200 tons of bones and bone ash for £330.

National brigantine Juan Pier to load in port for Antwerp, with flour and bran of the country, for 1400 pats.

The collections in town this evening not as good as might be expected. Merchants complain that they can with the greatest difficulty get money from the shopkeepers, whilst these gentlemen complain that they can not get money from their customers.

An applica ion was made to us today for the McCarthy cotton gin, which we have at our office, by persons being offered for it by a member of Congress, who wishes to send it to San Luis.

Merchants who have cotton gins will please examine us, as we are happy to say they are getting no demand

Patrons are respectfully invited to visit the establishment, and carefully the monthly reports of progress and deportment.

The English, Spanish, and French languages are carefully taught by skilful instructors, and every branch of useful or ornamental education may be prosecuted in either of these languages.

French and drawing are taught after school hours. Also an evening school for busy work four times a week.

Day pupils can be received at any time, and a few could be accommodated as boarders or half boarders.

Sept 20th.
